Materials

Double-face silk duchesse satin, fuchsia pink on one side and acid green on the other.

Description

Trapeze-line caban jacket, mid-thigh length, constructed from six fabric panels with a slit at the back. Single-breasted with hidden front fastening, round collar enriched by a front pleat, mounted with a collar stand and finished with a strap. Long raglan sleeves, fastened at the cuffs with a short zipper and a strap. Inserted pockets. Buttons covered in the same fabric as the caban. On the runway, the piece was presented layered over a black jersey minidress.

Remarks

A precious double-face silk fabric in dazzling fluorescent colors is used to create a garment featuring details borrowed from the most classic sporty raincoat.
